FULTON COUNTY TRIBUNE

The Tribune will go to press one day earlier in order to get the final announcements of our advertisers to our readers two days before Christmas instead of one. All correspondents letters should be in this office not later than Tuesday afternoon in order to be published in next week's iasue. We expect to send the Tribune out on Thursday morning's mails.

Waureon as a Christmas trading center is in all its glory just at the present time. The windows are worth a long trlp to see and the stocks of goods that are on the shelves behind the windows, equal in quality and variety stocks carried in the larger towns and cities. As to prices, this is what a Toledo lady remarked the other day after she had been doing some shopping in the Wauseon stores "My you can do lots better in Wauseon in prices than you can in Toledo."

The Editor doesn't very often talk about himself because he knows better than anyone else how little there is to talk about on this subject but just now he would like to say that he is not the Republican candidate for Probate Judge in Fulton county nor does he expect to be. The statement in the Toledo Times recently under the caption "Wauseon News" that F. E. Kenyon would be the Republican candidate for Probate Judge is entirely with out foundation in fact. It must have been a "dream" of the correspondent.

Speaking of "near news", Ed Dailey heard the other day of an item regarding himself published in a Wauscon paper which records an incident that occurred about fifteen years ago Mr. and Mrs. Dailey were in the other day trying to figure out just when it did happen and they both agreed that it must have been fifteen years ago that Ed took his shot gun and made a tramp who had thrown away some bread that had just been given him at the Dailey home pick to the bread and eat it. It was all true and real news—fifteen years ago.

A Few Christmas Suggestions:

Bring The Boys and Girls to Our Toy Store

This is the month we live for. Who is too old to thrill with the joy of childhood as he stands among these hundreds of playthings and recalls the painted soldiers and engine and cars of childhood days? Bring in the little folks and perhaps you'll have as happy an hour as they will. All the old favorites are here, and every new device under the sun to make young folks happy. It's marvelous how little these joy makers cost. Special attention to the following displays:—Dolls, Doll Carts, Rocking Horses, Building Blocks, Drums, Game Boards, Iron Toys, Iron Trains, Child's Furniture.
